

Spirit of Saginaw Award

- presented at the Leadership Awards Luncheon -

1. The award will not necessarily be an annual award nor be necessarily limited to one person. In some years, several persons could win if all are deemed to best exemplify the Spirit of Saginaw by the judges. Accordingly, in other years, no one should win if the judges do not feel an exemplary volunteer has been nominated.
2. The award will go to an individual, not a firm or organization.
3. The award is for service volunteered to improve the quality of life and/or economic climate of Saginaw County during the previous 18 months only.
4. The panel of judges will consist of the Chamber's Board of Directors.
6. Quality of Life can include such activities as those that involve:
 - education/schools
 - recreation/leisure
 - government
 - image of the area
 - community service
 - culture/history
 - entertainment
 - aesthetics of the area
 - crime prevention
 - general volunteerism
5. Economic Development can include such activities as those that involve:
 - creating jobs
 - retaining jobs
 - bringing in new jobs
 - procuring new business or contacts from outside the Saginaw area
 - business expansion and growth
6. Nominees are not required to be members of the Saginaw County Chamber of Commerce or business community.
